Special Collection Today For Black & Indian Missions

Please Be Generous

We ask you to be as generous as possible in the 2nd collection which will be taken up today for the Missions in the United States among Indians and Black.s.

Cooperative Plan Mission

Next Sunday, there will be a special Priest in our Church from the Congregation of the Missionaries of Jesus. His name is Fr. Aris Villanueva. He is a priest who was born and educated in the Philippines and is presently engaged in Missionary Word in Guatemala. He will be preaching at all of the Masses and we ask you to support his Cause. The priest was sent here by the Society for the Propagation of the Faith in our Archdiocese to preach and hopefully be able to support his Missionary work with the collection that he is able to take up among the American friends. If you cannot contribute with funds, you should at least pray for the success of his missions.

Fr. Villanueva will speak at all the Masses today and the second collection taken up will go entirely to his Missions. Please be as generous as possible.

Fund Raiser Raffle

Each Sunday after the Masses, we shall have one of the Parish women in the back of the Church to sell Raffle Tickets to anyone who wishes to buy them. The Raffle will take place at 9pm on the last day of the S. Gennaro Feast, which will be on September 20th. The grand prize will be $1,500.00 If we get to sell more than ten thousand tickets, we will also give a second and third prize of $500 and $100.00 respectively. And Now, For Your Information

The year was 1987!. There was Ollie (Lt. Col. Oliver North) testifying at the Iran-Contra hearings during the Reagan Administration. He was in front of God and country getting the 3rd degree, but what he said was most interesting and Stunning!

He was being drilled by a Senator;

“Did you not recently spend close to $60,000 for a home security system?”

Ollie replied:

“Yes I did, Sir.”

And the Senator continued, trying to get a laugh out of the audience, poise and a written essay.

“Wouldn’t you say that this was just a little excessive?”

“No, Sir,” continued Ollie.

“No? And why not? The Senator asked.

“Because the lives of my family and I were being threatened, sir.”

“Threatened?” By Whom? The senator questioned.

“By a Terrorist, sir.” . Ollie answered.

“Terrorist? What terrorist could possibly scare you that much?”

“His name is Osama Bin Laden , Sir. Ollie replied.

At this point the Senator tried to repeat the name, but couldn’t pronounce it, which most people back then probably couldn’t. I couple of people laughed at the attempt. Then the senator continued.

“Why are you so afraid of this man?” the senator asked.

“Because, sir, he is the most evil person alive that I know of.” Ollie replied.

“And what do you propose or recommend that we do about him?” Asked the Seonator.

“Well, sir, if it were up to me, I* would recommend that an assasin team be form to eliminate him and his men from the face of the earth.”

The Senator disagreed with this approach.

And that was the end of this interrogation.

By the way, you just might want to know who that Senator was who did the questioning. None other than Al Gore....

And furthermore, a Terrorist Pilot by the name of Mohammed Atta (the name familiar????) Blew up a bus in Israel in 1986. But the Israelis captured him, tried him, and threw him into prison for a long long term. Then as part of the so-called OSLO agreement with the Palestinians in 1993, Israel had to agree to release its so-called ‘political prisoners.’

But the israelis refused to release anyone with blood on their hands, And Mohammed Atta certainly had the blood of all those people on the bus on his hands. But at the time, our American President who was none other than William Jefferson Clinton, and whose Vice President was Mr. Al Gore, and whose secretary of State was none other than the famous Mr. Warren Christopher told the Israelis that ALL prisoners HAD to be released.

Thus, Mohammed Atta was freed and personally thanked Clinton and Gore by eventually flying a hijacked American Airlines 747 into Tower One of our World Trade Center.

The above was reported by many American TV networks at the time that the terrorist who brought down the World Trade Center were identified, but it was censored in the USA. But as Paul Harvey Sr. would say "And now you know the rest of the story!"
